Catechism/Parent Meeting

29 years ago my July found me in transition - leaving a community and congregation where I had served as a youth director preparing to attend seminary, and moving from Iowa to South Carolina. Part of that transition included the "trial by fire" known as Summer Greek - a 6 week intensive course in New Testament Greek. Quickly I began to realize that the phrase, "it's Greek to me," was a very real statement. Fortunately I survived that class, continued into seminary, and the rest is history. Languages have never been my friend, and they don't come easily. I survive them by learning some basics and gathering lots of tools to help. How easy navigating a foreign language is with modern smartphone apps to instantly translate, though New Testament Greek may be a language left without an "app."

I'm thinking about learning languages because each surface in Rachel's bedroom now has a post-it note with that item's Finnish word written on it, and daily via a CD rom program she is practicing her Finnish in preparation for her exchange year. She has a gift for languages - probably because she is really capable in her native language of English. But she will be tested in Finland - in fact she will attend culture and language school for a couple of weeks at the outset and every Saturday for several months of her exchange.

Some have suggested that the people of God in Christ are blessed with a specific language. It is found in the story of God's intentional involvement with the human family - an involvement which seeks and finds, promises and fulfills promises, creates and redeems and sustains through grace upon grace. It is a language learned from our ancestors through hymnody like "Jesus Loves Me" and "Amazing Grace, How Sweet the Sound." The language of our salvation is spoken in the story of the Jewish Passover which Jesus shared with his disciples, saying, "Take and eat, this is my body; take and drink, this is my blood; given and shed for the forgiveness of sin; do this in remembrance of me." And it is a language spoken from a cruciform savior who offers forgiveness rather than condemnation to those who executed him. This is the language of life eternal - it is shared across cultures and throughout history. Reinforced with the gesture of folded hands or the sign of the cross. Speak it as if it is your native language - and it will truly transform you and society, for Jesus' sake.

Peace be with you, always!

Worship Focus for July

July 1 & 2 Fourth Weekend after Pentecost

The welcome of baptism is for all God's children. This baptismal gift sets us free from the power of sin and death. In today's gospel, Christ promises that the disciple who gives a cup of cold water to the little ones serves Christ himself. From worship we are sent on our baptismal mission: to serve the little ones of this world and to be a sign of God's merciful welcome.

July 8 & 9 Fifth Weekend after Pentecost

The mystery of God's ways is sometimes hidden from the wise and intelligent. Jesus associates with the lowly and outcast. Like Paul, we struggle with our own selfish desires and seek God's mercy and forgiveness. We gather to be refreshed by Christ's invitation: "Come to me, all you that are weary." Gathered around word, water, and meal, we find rest for our souls.

July 15 & 16 Sixth Weekend after Pentecost

God's word is like the rain that waters the earth and brings forth vegetation. It is also like the sower who scatters seed indiscriminately. Our lives are like seeds sown in the earth. Even from what appears to be little, dormant, or dead, God promises a harvest. At the Lord's table we are fed with the bread of life, that we may bear fruit in the world.

July 22 & 23 Seventh Weekend after Pentecost

It is an age-old question: why is there evil in the world? In the parable of the wheat and the weeds Jesus suggests that both grow together until the harvest. With Paul, we long for the day that all creation will be set free from bondage and suffering. Having both weeds and wheat within us, we humbly place our hope in the promises of God, and from the Lord's table we go forth to bear the fruit of justice and mercy.

July 29 & 30 Eighth Weekend after Pentecost

As Solomon prays for wisdom, we seek to more deeply know the treasures of faith. In today's gospel Jesus offers everyday images that reveal to us the reign of God: a tree that becomes a sheltering home, yeast that penetrates and expands, a treasured pearl, a net that gains a great catch. Even as we seek the riches of God's reign, the great surprise is that God's grace finds us first!

The 2017 Williams County Relay for Life was a success and Trinity Lutheran Church played a large part in making it such a success. The Trinity Lutheran Church fundraising efforts consisted of the annual cookie walk, and two raffles. THANK YOU to everyone who helped with any of these events - walkers, bakers, buyers, sellers, etc... We raised $3280. this year for the American Cancer Society Relay for Life.

Brookview Farms Meat R A F F L E

The winning ticket was drawn at the Relay for Life on Saturday morning. The winner is Tammy Varner of Bryan. Thank you to everyone that purchased tickets and helped to make the raffle a huge success.

The WELCA board would like to express their sincere appreciation for all the help with the 35th annual Strawberry Festival. Without all the volunteers, the festival would not be a success. It takes a considerable amount of people, making and baking pie crusts, cleaning and cutting berries, making pies, making chicken sandwiches, angel food cakes and short cakes, helping in the kitchen, working the serving line, bussing tables and "runners" for needed supplies, the Boys Scouts and boys from the football team for helping set up and tear down, the folks that made potato salad and beans and those who helped with the tent. We also need to thank Midweek Manna for the donation of pork for our bbq pork sandwiches and Thrivent Financial for their generous seed money. A very special THANKS to all our TLC members who attend to reap the fruits of our labors. We served about 430 meals and after expenses, we made approximately $3500.

WORSHIP FOCUS FOR AUGUST

August 5 & 6 Ninth Weekend after Pentecost
In today's first reading God invites all who are hungry or thirsty to receive food and drink without cost. Jesus feeds the hungry multitude and reveals the abundance of God. At the eucharistic table we remember all who are hungry or poor in our world today. As we share the bread of life, we are sent forth to give ourselves away as bread for the hungry.

August 12 & 13 Tenth Weekend after Pentecost
Elijah finds the presence of God not in earthquake, wind, or fire, but in the sound of sheer silence. When the disciples face a great storm on the sea, they cry out with fear. Jesus says: "Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid." Amid the storms of life, we gather to seek the calm presence of Christ that soothes our fears. In comforting words of scripture and in the refreshing bread and cup of the eucharist, God grants us peace and sends us forth to be a sign of God's presence to others.

August 19 & 20 Eleventh Weekend after Pentecost
In Isaiah we hear that God's house shall be a house of prayer for all people and that God will gather the outcasts of Israel. The Canaanite woman in today's gospel is a Gentile, an outsider, who is unflinching in her request that Jesus heal her daughter. As Jesus commends her bold faith, how might our church extend its mission to those on the margins of society? In our gathering around word and meal we receive strength to be signs of comfort, healing, and justice for those in need.

August 26 & 27 Twelveth Weekend after Pentecost
In Isaiah the people are bid to look to their spiritual ancestors as the rock from which they were hewn. Jesus declares that the church will be built on the rock of Peter's bold confession of faith. God's word of reconciliation and mercy are keys to the church's mission. Paul urges us to not be conformed to this world, but to offer our bodies as a living sacrifice, using our individual gifts to build up the body of Christ. From the table we go forth to offer our spiritual worship through word and deed.

Catechism Students & Parents

An informational meeting will be held on Wednesday, August 30, 2017 for all students and parents grades 5-8. The Class Schedule will be shared and expectations outlined. Watch your mailbox for more details.

ROAD TRIP!! Join the fun and fellowship with a day together at the Shipshewana Flea Market. Tuesday, August 8, 2017 - we'll meet at the church at 7 a.m. to arrive shortly after the market opens. We will return to the church by 6 p.m. A sign-up sheet is on the kiosk where we ask that you indicate your willingness to drive, how many people you are able to transport, and if you want to dine together at a local Amish buffet or dine as you shop. If you have questions, please contact Rhonda in the church office or Pastor MB.

Thank you to my friends and church family at Trinity - your support of my Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser and encouragement of me to go on exchange mean the world to me. I will leave for Finland on August 5 and be gone until July 2018. It will be the adventure of a lifetime, and though I will be far from Bryan thoughts of many of you and your many gestures of kindness will be close at heart. When I get settled I'll provide my contact information and will also plan to keep in touch through a Blog - it would be good to hear from you.

Thank you again - God bless! Rachel Webb

On July 8 & 9 we will welcome Josh & Bethany Reed who will be sharing the message and bringing us up-to-date with their missionary efforts in South Asia. They will be with us for both weekend worship services, at 6 pm on Saturday, and 9:30 a.m. on Sunday. Following the Sunday service we will gather for a brunch and informal conversation with them. The brunch will be served in Weiblen Hall. Make plans to be in attendance for worship and re-connecting that weekend.
